INTRODUCTION :

The Bombay legislature of the erstwhile Bombay Presidency established Karnatak University through the Karnatak University Act 1949. Karnatak University was founded in the year 1950 at Dharwad, the city of seven hills, by an Act of the then Bombay Provincial Government. This is situated on one of the beautiful hills which is called Chota Mahabaleshwar i.e., next to the hill station Mahabaleshwar in Maharashtra. It is one of the reputed Universities in India today not only in academic performance but also in the field of sports. Since its inception, it has given prime importance to the promotion of sports and games and has also arranged various sports programmes for the youth. Even under the Bombay University this part of Karnataka was known for sports and games and had produced a good number of sports persons who represented the Bombay University and also the state. Formerly Karnatak University was the second oldest University in Karnataka state. Its jurisdiction covered eight revenue districts of Belgaum, Bellary, Bidar, Bijapur, Dharwad, Gulbarga, Raichur and Uttar Kannada which were a part of Bombay and Madras Presidency and Hyderabad state.

After the establishment of the Gulbarga University in 1981 and Mangalore University, only four revenue districts of Belgaum, Bijapur, Dharwad, and Uttar Kannada remained under the jurisdiction of Karnatak University. Now all the colleges in the newly formed districts of Bagalkot, Gadag and Haveri come under its jurisdiction. There are now 240 colleges affiliated to this University. Among these are Arts, Science, Commerce, Engineering, Medical, Dental, Law, Education, Physical Education, Ayurvedic, Homoeopathic and Nursing colleges. To these are added Post-Graduate Centres at Dharwad, Belgaum, Bijapur and Karwar. For smooth and efficient organisation and administration of sports programme, the colleges are divided into Five Zones: Dharwad, Hubli, Belgaum, Bijapur and Uttar Kannada. The Inter-Collegiate Tournaments are conducted on Single Zone, Two-Zone and Four-Zone basis depending upon the games and participation. Individual events like athletics, swimming, wrestling, weight lifting, gymnastics, mallakhamb, cycling and team games like tennis, chess are conducted on single zone basis. Team games like Kho kho, Kabaddi, Vollyball, Basket ball, Football, Hockey, Cricket, Badminton, Table Tennis are conducted on Zonal and Inter-Zonal basis.

The Karnataka University has been having a full-fledged Sports Section since 1971. A Director of Physical Education and Eight coaches in Athletics, Swimming, Volleyball, Wrestling, Cricket, Badminton, Hockey and Yoga are provided.

There are 05 constitute college offering UG courses in science, arts, commerce, fine Arts, law and education, karnatak Arts and karnatak Science Colleges also offer P G courses. There are 23 Hostels in all including a working woman's Hostel and Ladies hostels. These provide residential accommodation to 2600 students of U G and P G courses.

The University has established 04 P G campuses, at Belgaum, Haveri, Gadag and Karwar which are District Headquarters. All campuses are self contained and are at various stages of development. After the establishment of the Rani Channamma University in 2010, only 03 P G campuses is now Gadag. Haveri, and Karwar.
